

Survival Camp 2025

for basketball referees

Two sessions with 5 days of hard work each.
All to improve YOU as basketball referee!

Introduction

We are proud to invite you to the SURVIVAL CAMP 2025 — an intensive, high-impact development experience tailored for basketball referees who are committed to professional growth. If you're ready to challenge your habits and elevate your performance, this camp is for you.

Survival Camp is organized by the Referee.pl group, founded by EuroLeague referee Jakub Zamojski.

Through games with professional players, structured feedback, and high-performance coaching, referees undergo comprehensive development on both physical and mental levels.

Camp highlights

- Campers will officiating high-level practice games of professional players.
- Campers will work on correct movement, proper positioning, clear observation, but also teamwork, communication and cooperation with players and coaches.
- There will be a lot of practical trainings but in the meantime, we will have some theoretical sessions when each of us will be active. We will talk about criteria, selection of calls and way to manage games.

- There will be a chance to analyse your work supported by new technologies. This will help us to understand what we do right, what we do wrong, how we can do better!
- We will provide campers with the possibility to collect the data about body condition. Campers will have chance to work with physiotherapists and get information from professional coaches how to work to avoid injuries or get away from them.
- Each day campers will work with physical preparation coaches to improve not only our bodies but also all aspects of our movement on the court.
- We will prepare some special sessions with people from Euroleague, NBA and FIBA.
- New offer: a special mental skills training program that we will start at the camp and campers will be able to continue it throughout the year

Who can join the camp

Camp is open to local, national and international-level referees from around the world. Limited to 9–12 referees per session to ensure personal attention.

Small group of campers – huge results at the end of the week. Survival Camp provides very modern way of working to improve referees' skills in all individual aspects.
